If you're looking for a bit of Ibiza in Sussex then Langton Lodge is perfect. Main Reason? It's got a pool! Just an hour's drive from London it's perfect for a large family or three couples fancying a bit of al fresco living. The décor has been done to a 5 star standard and everything you'd expect is provided from gas BBQ to 42" flat screen. Everything from the towels to the arrival hamper smack of boutique hotel.

The pool is heated and a good size with a lovely stone terrace - perfect for cocktail hour! At the other side of the cottage is a large decked area with seating for BBQs.

If you must drag yourself away from the pool the village of Hurstpierpoint is a short walk away boasting a couple of great pubs for Sunday lunch. You are also on the edge of the South Downs if you fancy a stroll.

But to be honest Langton Lodge is all about the pool. So if you get really lucky with the weather, get some great tunes on the iPod, ask your boyfriend to dress as a waiter and speak Spanish, then you could almost be in the Balearics.

● 3 nights from £672 to £1021 in peak season. Sleeps 6. Langtonlodge.co.uk
